Still in process. However, there is no way we can charge your friend a 10k Co-pay.

>> I processed his insurance through Medco, the insurance is giving me a copay of over $10,000 for the scar gel and over $5,000 with no insurance payment for the MS-31. I have called the insurance company to find out what is causing that to happen. So far they said, it is a commercial plan, the patient is not limited in the amount of benefits they receive, their plan does cover multi-ingredient compounds. The insurance employee is sending it up to review to find out what is causing the issue, it will take 12-72 hours for them to get an answer. He also suggested that the patient call his customer service to have them start a review as well.
